A HAPPY SUGGESTION.

A Georgia exchange makes the following happy suggestion as means to simplify and accelerate voting in the May primary.

"As the Florida primary election roaches, the voters are wondering how they will ever be able to hunt out and make a cross before the 60 or more candidates for whom they wish to vote. All told, the average ticket will contain the names of about 200 candidates Why would it not be a good scheme to adopt emblems? Have the picture of a steamboat, for instance. for the Broward faction, and an X made in the circle with the steam boat would count one for each candidate of that political faith. Let a river front represent the Barrs faction; a pepper-box, the Stockton faction; a coy maiden, the Alexander faction; a hen feather, the Clark faction; a high cypress tree, the Dougherty faction; a railroad locomotive the Taliaferro faction, and

This would greatly simplify the voting-perhaps

According to the Atlanta News. the press of Georgia is almost unanimous for Hearst. In Florida the average country editor is so busy abusing Taliaferro, Jennings and Stockton, candidates for the senate. opinion, are for Hearst.

The last issue of the Florida "School" Exponent was almost entirely devoted to the advocacy of W. N. Sheats for state superintendent. All of which is of course that I had known of it in my hus- They were, however, woefully disvery edifying and beneficial to the public school interests.

A gentleman who has traveled all over the county the past two weeks informes THE NEWS that the people when the votes are counted on May 10.

It is said that Broward, when he first announced for governor, had the assurance of 8,000 Caban voters. If this is a fact, Broward is no small factor in the campaign.

Stetson University Brief News Notes

Several costly errors and the fine pitching of Chappel won the game for Tallahassee on Tuesday afternoon from Stetson. Both teams played good ball, but two hits outside the diamond which were not handled by the outfielders, and a couple of infield errors enabled Tailahassee to get sale, with extreme limit of March 29. Mrs. McCoy and the father of the around three times to Stetson's twice. The game was exciting throughout, and was not won until the last man was out as Stetson made her two runs with two men down. McCarty pitched out thirteen men to Chappel's ten and only allowing them to get four hits. Lewis Hall, on second, also played a good game, taking every chance without an error and making a beautiful one-hand catch of an overthrow ball from home. The game was really Stetson's, and if it had not been for errors Tallahassee would never have scored. The Stetson lineup was: Pounds, c; McCarty, p; Hall, 1st; Hall 2nd; Botts, ss; Pounds, 3rd; Pelot, If: Mickle, cf: Mickle, If. Chas. Kurtz umpired the game to the entisfaction of both teams.
